

*CONSENT TO RELEASE INFORMATION

It will be renewed annually.

By agreeing to these terms, the artist or their guardian agrees to the following use and sharing of information with the agencies and persons provided in their application, as well as with Persons with Developmental Disabilities (PDD):

- Provision of information for the preparation of and use in the annual Individual Service Plan (ISP) to the agency completing the ISP document, either the Day Program Agency or the Residential Agency.
- Provision of information concerning the artist's health and well-being with the individuals and appropriate representatives of the agencies named in this application.
- Release of artist's medical information in case of an emergency while at the National accessArts Centre.

The National accessArts Centre will release documents containing any personal information as provided in the Alberta Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act of October 1995 and the Abuse Prevention and Response Protocol (January 2004)
